

LYON

INSTITUT CATHOLIQUE DE LYON - UCLY -

UCLy
LYON CATHOLIC
UNIVERSITY

Founded in 1875, UCLy is a comprehensive university offering programs based on the European degree system, complemented by official diplomas (nationally regulated State diplomas) and other diplomas unique to the university. It has been labelled as a Private Higher Education Institution of Public Interest (EESPIG) by the French State.

UCLy is composed of 6 Faculties (Legal, Political and Social Sciences/ Economic Sciences and Management/ Natural Sciences and Biotechnology/ Philosophy and Humanities/ Modern Languages and Literature;/ Theology and Religious sciences), 5 advanced schools, and 15 institutes and research centers. 11,000 students are enrolled on two campuses in downtown Lyon, a city whose architectural heritage is recognized by UNESCO, and 1 in Annecy.

◆ MAIN PROGRAMMES OF STUDY

- Biology-biochemistry, Biotechnologies
- Business, Management
- Law, Human rights, Family sciences, Local development
- Languages, Translation, Communication
- French as a Foreign Language
- Psychology, Philosophy
- Education
- Literature
- History
- Environment and environmental quality and safety
- Theology

◆ RESEARCH

The Sciences and Humanities CONFLUENCE Research Center was established as a result of the project to bring together different disciplinary fields which, on the one hand, have their own specific features and, on the other hand, allow cross-approaches with regard to anthropological, scientific and social issues.

One multidisciplinary Research Center to promote convergence and strengthen UCLy's scientific potential

8 research departments : Legal, political and social sciences/ Sustainable business and organisations/ Biosciences, technologies, ethics/ Culture(s), language, imagination/ Education, people, support/ Integral human development, ecology, ethics/ Theology, philosophy and religious sciences/ The Bible, ancient literature and culture

◆ STRENGTHS

- Center for the teaching of French as a foreign language at the Institute of French Language and Culture, open year-round
- Personal attention to international students (International Student Desk), with particular regard to housing (pursuant to university's international student policy)
- Cross-disciplinary, holistic education (arts, culture, personal growth)
- Associated member of the Université de Lyon Research and Higher Education Cluster

◆ LOCATION

France's second-largest university city, Lyon hosts more than 135 000 students, 22 000 of whom come from outside France. The city's quality of life, the variety and quality of available educational programs, and a vast student-support network make Lyon one of Europe's most attractive university cities.

Capital of the Auvergne-Rhône-Alpes region, Lyon is a truly European city, located between the Alps and the Mediterranean near the Beaujolais wine country. Lyon is 150 km from Geneva, 308 km from Turin, and 600 km from Barcelona.

IDENTITY FORM

- ◆ Precise name of the institution
Institut Catholique de Lyon
- ◆ Type of institution
Private Higher Education Institution of Public Interest
- ◆ City where the main campus is located
Lyon
- ◆ Number of students
11 000
- ◆ Percentage or number of international students
20%
- ◆ Type and level of qualifications awarded
LMD - Other national diplomas - Institution Diplomas
- ◆ French language courses
Yes - Half-year, year and monthly programmes at ILCF-Lyon (UCLy's French Language and Culture Institute)
- ◆ Programs for international students
Yes - Exchange students.
Free movers.
Degree- seeking students: the programs are accessible according to the criteria indicated on UCLy's website for each of them.
- ◆ Programs in English
Yes - Law, Business. English-taught courses in Biology-Biotechnology, Psychology, Languages-Culture-Communication-Translation, Humanities, Literature
- ◆ Registration fees/year (for information only)
From 1,500 euros to 19,000 euros, depending on the programs
- ◆ Postal address
10 place des Archives 69288 Lyon cedex 02

<http://www.ucl.fr>

Member of Campus France Forum